25 The parties, United States of America, by and through its counsel KAREN P. HEWITT, 26 United States Attorney, and MICHAEL J. CROWLEY and TIMOTHY F. SALEL, Assistant United 27 States Attorneys, and the above-listed defendants, through their respective defense counsel, hereby 28 jointly move, pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, for this Court to

1 enter a protective order in order to prevent premature and unwarranted disclosure of evidence to 2 potential targets, subjects, witnesses, and unrelated third parties,

3 The parties jointly move and agree that the defendants, their counsel of record, and their 4 paralegals, law clerks, secretaries, experts, investigators, assistants, office personnel and employees
5 shall not disclose the substance of any discovery material received from the Government in the 6 above-captioned matter, including all wiretap documents, to any third party, unless such material
7 is already a matter of public record, without prior approval of this Court;

8 The parties further move and agree that the United States Attorney and the Assistant United 9 States Attorneys assigned to this case (hereafter collectively referred to as “the Government”) and 10 their assistants, the defendants, their counsel and their assistants, shall not disclose the substance of 11 any discovery material produced to the defendants or obtained by the Government from the 12 defendants, unless such material is already a matter of public record, to representatives of the media 13 or other third parties not involved in any way in the investigation or prosecution of the case.

14 The parties further move and agree that nothing contained herein shall prevent the 15 Government, or any defendant or their counsel, from disclosing such discovery material to any other 16 attorneys working for the Government, the defendants or their counsel, government agents (federal, 17 state or local), paralegals, law clerks, secretaries, experts, investigators, assistants, office personnel, 18 employees , and any other person who is working for the Government or the defendants and their 19 counsel (collectively referred to as “assistants”) in the investigation or preparation of this case or,
20 with respect to the Government and its assistants only, in other criminal investigations, without prior 21 court order. Further, nothing contained herein shall preclude the Government, defendants or their 22 counsel, or their respective assistants from conducting an investigation of the facts of this case on 23 behalf of the Government or said defendants, or with respect to the Government and its assistants
24 only, from conducting an investigation of other criminal activity, including interviewing witnesses
25 disclosed by said discovery materials, or from taking statements from witnesses disclosed by said
26 discovery materials, or from asking said witnesses if they themselves have made prior statements 27 to the Government that are disclosed in the discovery materials, and about the contents of such statements. In connection with any such investigation, it shall not be necessary that the Government, the defendants or their counsel, or their respective assistants, obtain prior permission of this Court.
28

The parties jointly move and agree that, should counsel withdraw or be disqualified from participation in this case, any material received and any copies derived therefrom, shall be returned to the Government within 10 days.

Finally, the parties jointly move and agree that each counsel shall be required to communicate the substance of this order and explain it to their clients and assistants before disclosing the substance of the discovery to their clients or assistants.

Respectfully submitted,

KAREN P. HEWITT
